

Ronald S. Goings

Moved to Clifton Forge in 1981. He married to Susan Simmons in 1983 and with her has raised 4 children. Together in 1984 opened a medical practice in downtown Clifton Forge which continued until 2015. Over the years he has served the citizens of Clifton Forge in several capacities including 16 years on the Public Library board and for 5 years on the Planning Commission. He ran for town council in 2018 and was elected. He has a deep love for the town and will work diligently for progress toward a better and brighter future.
