

Robert H. Johnson Jr. Biography

Robert Johnson Jr. was born and raised in Alleghany County and has lived in the Clifton Forge community for the majority of his life. After 27 years in the military, Robert retired in 2004 as a Sergeant First Class from the United States Army Reserve.

As a local minister and former Clifton Forge police officer, Robert decided to actively get involved with local government to exercise his passion for the community and the people that make it up. He has served on the Clifton Forge Planning Commission, the Comprehensive Plan and Zoning Regulations Committee, the Water and Sewage Rate Committee, and is now a Clifton Forge Town Council Member. In addition to serving the town of Clifton Forge, Robert is also a member of the Alleghany Highland Community Services Board.

Robert is married to Teresa Johnson and has one daughter, Brianna Johnson, who is soon to graduate from the University of Virginia.
