

Dave Oeltjen was elected to Clifton Forge Town Council in November 2016. Dave and his wife moved to Clifton Forge in 2013 and have been involved in community events since that time. Dave is a Viet Nam Vet and grew up in Beatrice Nebraska, his love for small town life is evident. Dave works as an Assistant Manager for the local Wal Mart and co-owns the retail business, Livy's Closet, with his wife Jenny. Mr Oeltjen wants to be as active in this community as he can; be by listening closely to its citizens, staying current with local issues. In addition Dave promises to to always remember that as a part of this team, he will serve and support the developments and goals for the town. He will also work towards keeping the already forward movement and momentum that this town is already experiencing.
